An excellent read. I was, and still am, hooked on the exploits of the Expeditionary Force books and the Black Ops (Book 4) in the series was no exception. Have to wait until November for the next sequel in this very agreeable Science Fiction Space romp series. For new readers you simply must start from Book 1 Columbus Day.

Black Ops by Craig Alanson is book four in the amazing and humorous space series. The dangers, slick maneuvers, schemes, and great dialogue make this lots of fun! Joe and Skippy make it over the top especially when you have R.C. Bray performing the narration! The book is great but I can't even think about reading this book, I have to LISTEN to it!

United Nations Special Operations Command sent an elite expeditionary force of soldiers and pilots out on a simple recon mission, and somehow along the way they sparked an alien civil war. Now the not-at-all-merry band of pirates is in desperate trouble, again. Their stolen alien starship is falling apart, thousands of light years from home.

Reviewed in the United Kingdom on May 9, 2018. Verified Purchase. SpecOps is the second novel in the Expeditionary Force series which deals with the aftermath of an alien invasion of Earth and the consequences of some poor decision making by humanity although to be fair it seemed like a good idea at the time.
