The 7th Edition of Global Marketing Management prepares students to become effective managers overseeing global marketing activities in an increasingly competitive environment. The text's guiding principle, as laid out concisely and methodically by authors Kotabe and Helsen, is that the realities of international marketing are more "multilateral." Suitable for all business majors, the text encourages students to learn how marketing managers work across business functions for effective corporate performance on a global basis and achievement of overall corporate goals. Global Marketing Management brings timely coverage in various economic and financial as well as marketing issues that arise from the acutely recessionary market environment.

Global Marketing Management, 8th Edition combines academic rigor, contemporary relevance, and student-friendly readability to review how marketing managers can succeed in the increasingly competitive international business environment. This in-depth yet accessible textbook helps students understand state-of-the-art global marketing practices and recognize how marketing managers work across business functions to achieve overall corporate goals. The author provides relevant historical background and offers logical explanations of current trends based on information from marketing executives and academic researchers around the world. Designed for students majoring in business, this thoroughly updated eighth edition both describes today's multilateral realities and explores the future of marketing in a global context. Building upon four main themes, the text discusses marketing management in light of the drastic changes the global economy has undergone, the explosive growth of information technology and e-commerce, the economic and political forces of globalization, and the various consequences of corporate action such as environmental pollution, substandard food safety, and unsafe work environments. Each chapter contains review and discussion questions to encourage classroom participation and strengthen student learning.

"Globalization is the growing interdependence of national economies - involving primarily customers, producers, suppliers and governments in different markets. Global marketing therefore reflects the trend of firms selling and distributing products and services in many countries around the world"--

Poised at the dawn of the Asian Century, innovation in international marketing continues to cut through the turbulence of our economic climate. This fourth Asia-Pacific edition of International Marketing is thoroughly revised to capture the cutting edge developments in international marketing, while retaining the integrity of Masaaki Kotabe's theoretical underpinning. Undergraduate students using this text as core resource will be equipped with the tools to become an effective international marketing manager. Armed with an understanding of how social media, ethics and sustainability are impacting the Asia-Pacific international marketing mix, students will draw on the interdisciplinary, cross functional approach to gain insight into all aspects of international business operations and the interface they have with marketing. The text provides detailed coverage of international marketing at all levels: from the SME primarily engaged in importing and exporting activities country by country through to larger organisations striving to coordinate their international marketing activities regionally and globally. A key underlying theme of the text is that while it may not be possible for all firms in the Asia-Pacific region to market their goods and services on a truly global scale, all firms that operate in any international marketplace need to understand and be aware of competition from both the local SMEs and the larger MNCs that are increasingly attempting to operate globally. In an increasingly competitive and global market, the fourth Asia-Pacific edition of International Marketing integrates fifteen new and dynamic end-of-chapter case studies to give students the knowledge, context and confidence to be a successful international marketing professional. 15 Dynamic new cases feat. Harvard business review 1) Using social networking tools for international marketing 2) The potential of global mango exports 3) Bilateral relations: emerging friendships 4) The Barbie doll in China 5) Trying to do business in a quake zone: Christchurch and Canterbury Tourism 6) Market research and communications: what flies below the radar 7) Marketing Halal meat products to Indonesian consumers 8) The sleeping giant: Giant Bicycles 9) Exporting Australian avocados 10) Banyan Tree hotels and resorts 11) Does Gourmet King advertising translate? 12) Distribution woes hobble start-ups in India 13) Exporting Australian wildflowers 14) Reverse exports: Aussie cheese to France? 15) Digiצל: delivering ?full service? at the bottom of the pyramid

Global Marketing Management prepares students to become effective managers overseeing global marketing activities in an increasingly competitive environment. The text s guiding principle, as laid out clearly and methodically by authors Kotabe and Helsen, is that the realities of international marketing are more multilateral. The 5th Edition further addresses some peculiar phenomenon being observed in global marketing today. Whether they choose to pursue marketing careers, all students learn how marketing managers can affect other business functions for effective corporate performance on a global basis and how to work effectively with others for the same corporate goal. Global Marketing Management brings timely coverage in various economic and financial as well as marketing issues that arise from the acutely recessionary market environment.
