Dr Thakrey says, "Kids are taught first aid to help. That does not mean that they fix other's problems on their own. They also need to be taught whether a situation demands first aid or not." "Getting close to open wires, people who have burnt themselves, or someone injured on the road is not the business of kids," he adds

Where are the connectives? Where are the gerunds? What are interjections? What is meant by 'perfect tense'? What on earth is this thing called a subjunctive? How are teachers supposed to teach hyphens and semi-colons when many children are still struggling to put their full stops and commas in the correct places? Need some grammar 'first aid'? This book is here to help.
