The Circle of Fire examines the eternal metaphysical questions "What is God?" and "What is the purpose of life?" and "What is the purpose of life?" The book discusses the answers to these questions given by Western science and different schools of Indian thought, specifically detailing the answers to be found in India's two most developed atheistic traditions, Hinduism and Buddhism.

"The Circle of Fire" prayer is enough for you to go to heaven and stay there. But first, you need to take the agreement, live the agreement, and make it yours. To say a prayer doesn't take more than a minute, but you need the discipline to do it.

The Circle of Fire Prayer - The Four Agreements

Circle of Fire begins in America and I was so excited to finally take Team Veritas to the home of MS 408. The building is amazing and inside it is filled with a soft amber light because of the sun filtering through the marble walls. It's certainly an unusual building and the garden is even more unusual. Check out the sculpture in the photo.

The author makes the brave assertion that ultimately one or the other will be the theory realized by science as the ultimate metaphysical truth. Like other books on the meeting of science and spirituality (Fritszjof Capra's 80s classic The Tao of Physics) and the necessity of a scientifically compatible notion of God (Richard Dawkin's The God Delusion), The Circle of Fire is ambitious in scope and a challenging, rewarding read.
