The Paper Dolls are destined to be known as one hit wonders, but this CD collection of their one album and singles demonstrates they were a sixties girl group who showed promise. Aside from "Somthing Here In My Heart" my favourite track is "Some day", released as a single this instantly catchy song sadly did not enter the charts.

As one might guess, the House of Viktor & Rolf is anything but normal. The retrospective is showcased over two floors of the Barbican gallery using a mixture of regular and life-size dolls decked out in perfect replicas of signature pieces from each of their collections since 1992. All of this is centered around a giant doll house.
